

Roots of Rejection

Most of us are facing some kind of rejection in our lives. We have written this chapter because this root is the most common hindrance to our personal victory, especially in relationship with others. Unless this root is pulled out it is like a weed in our garden that brings forth fruit like:

Some Fruits of Rejection:

- | | |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| ☞ Anger | ☞ Rebellion |
| ☞ Bitterness | ☞ Guilt |
| ☞ Inferiority | ☞ Judgmentalism |
| ☞ Perfectionism | ☞ Control |
| ☞ Hopelessness | ☞ Hardness |
| ☞ Distrust | ☞ Disrespect |
| ☞ Jealousy | ☞ Self Pity |
| ☞ Depression | ☞ Isolation |

Some causes of Rejection:

- Unwanted conception
- Contemplated or attempted abortion (by your father or/and mother)
- As a child not being affirmed for the gender we are
- Adoption
- Abandonment
- Death of a parent
- Abuse; including physical, verbal, sexual, emotional
- Withholding of love ^{*note}, parent being distant or unable to show love and affirmation.
- Peer rejection
- A canceled Marriage

^{*note} In all respect and love for Thai people and Thai culture (and several Asian cultures), I still feel that this area need to be addressed. Verbal abuse, like scolding and cursing a child when not performing up to the mark and/or seldom being encouraged to do good or not affirming the child, withholding parental love is something extremely common. This causes the child to feel rejected and/or never feeling they are good enough, etc.

To root out rejection is a process:

- Soak yourself in Words that speak of God's love for you.
- Expose the lie of satan
- Break the curse of words over your life. (See chapter on Bitterroot Judgment on inner vows and pronouncements)

Let's Check Some Words of Love from God to you:

- + John 3:16 He gave His Son to die for you
- + Isaiah 53:3 Jesus took your rejection.
- + Ephesians 3:16-19 His love for you is unsearchable
- + Romans 5:5, 8 He has already poured His love into you
- + Romans 8:14-16 You can call God: Abba Father
- + Romans 8:37-39 Nothing can separate us from His love,
NOTHING!!!

God's love is being poured out for you right now, He is a good Father and loves to see you restored.

Would you pray the following prayer aloud :

Dear Heavenly Father, Thank You for loving me from the time I was in my mother's womb until today. You loved me and even being yet a sinner You sent Your Son Jesus to die for me. Thank You for accepting me into Your Kingdom and Family. I forgive (name them)..... whom at different points in my life have rejected me, and I release them to you.

I break the curse of their words spoken over me from the time yet unborn until today, because Jesus became a curse for me and was rejected for me on the cross on Calvary.

Heavenly Father I now, in the power of the Holy Spirit and in the Name of Jesus, pull out every root of rejection in my life. I ask you to forgive me for the bad fruit in my life and ask that you particularly rid me of..... (name them).....

Thank You for cleansing me from all unrighteousness. As I abide in Jesus and become rooted and grounded in Your love I believe good fruit will grow instead. Thank You Father that you hold me in your hand and that nothing can separate me from Your love, in Jesus' Name, Amen
